Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, It is well known that in California, during one of our former President's birthdays, a group of people, most of whom come from the State of South Dakota, gather together to declare a great truth. That truth is that there are only two kinds of people in this world--those people who are South Dakotans and those who wish they were; and,

WHEREAS, These people who gather together shall forevermore be given the honorary title of "True South Dakotans." All rights and privileges of this title shall henceforth be bestowed on all who meet the above requirement; and,

WHEREAS, These "True South Dakotans" celebrate the great truth at their annual gathering by performing the rituals of native South Dakotans, such as playing cards, swimming, golfing, and partying in general; and,

WHEREAS, My good friends the Keatings will be in attendance and are hereby declared the Honorary "Governor and First Lady" of the "True South Dakotans"; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for me, as Governor, to acknowledge the existence of a group of "True South Dakotans" having a weekend celebration in California:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 19th and 20th, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I wish all the best to my fellow South Dakotans and honorary South Dakotans who are suffering through this long, cruel California winter.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
